 A WATERMARK RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

Hello and thank you for your interest in Watermark University!

The fundamental purpose of Watermark University (WU) is to provide residents with meaningful opportunities to learn, teach, and grow, resulting in a life of overall well-being. Research shows that learning and keeping our mind active and sharp supports healthy aging.

At Watermark Retirement Communities® we are committed to encouraging our residents and associates to lead balanced lives, full of meaning and purpose, grounded in self-awareness, and infused with curiosity. Our Watermark University courses help achieve this goal.

By focusing on the Seven Dimensions of Well-being: Physical, Social, Intellectual, Spiritual, Emotional, Environmental, and Vocational, we offer the opportunity to achieve a balanced life and we see the benefits across the country in every class, every day.

Sincerely,

Dorianne Cammarota

NAME OF INSTRUCTOR

CLASS NAME

Suad Abughazaleh/Resident

A Taste of the Holy Land (Palestine)

Suad was born in Palestine and had high hopes of becoming a dentist, but due to her father's passing at an early age, she chose to follow the road of education in order to more readily help her family. She taught English, Physical Education, and Art in Kuwait, where she met her husband. She came to the U.S. in 1961, but had the opportunity to go back to Lebanon for 7 years so that their children could learn their native culture. She had the opportunity to teach in Lebanon and later lived in London and finally ended up in Texas in 1979 working alongside her husband in the business industry.

Les Burgman, Resident

Music and Memories

Les Burgman spent his early years on Long Island, New York. He and his wife Sylvia (married 69 years) lived and worked together in New York, after which they retired to Tucson, Arizona. After living there for 28 years, they moved to Frisco in 2013 to be closer to family. Les has loved music of all kinds for as long as he can remember, and enjoys helping other people to enjoy it, too.

Dorianne Cammarota, Community Life Director

Dance, Speed Mentoring, Prayer Group, National Number Knockout, This is Your Life, Frisco History

Dorianne is passionate about developing relationships and encouraging those around her. Her husband of 20 years, 4 children, life long friends and new friends are things that she counts as most valuable and influential in her life. She loves to cheer on her kids in their sports and activities, loves comedy, good music, and chips and salsa.

Jose DeLeon, Maintenance Director

Car Tune-Up w Jose

Jose is a light-hearted person with an excellent work ethic which makes for a terrific team member. He grew up in Guatemala and moved to the United States when he was 20 years old. Jose has been married for over thirty years and has three children and is looking forward to an upcoming trip to Rome with his family.

Ralph Ehren, Resident

Bible Study with Ralph

Ralph retired from pastoral ministry after 32 years. During those years, he served as Adjunct Professor for Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. After retirement, he was elected to the staff of Houston Baptist University, and taught for 15 years at the Korean Bible College in Falls Church, Virginia, and 2 years at the Korean Bible University in Seoul, South Korea. He holds a BA and MEd degrees as well as MDiv and PhD degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas.

NAME OF INSTRUCTOR

CLASS NAME

Pat Ferrell, Resident

Morning Exercise with Pat

Pat was born and raised in Colorado. After marrying her wonderful husband, she moved to California. During her career, Pat was Vice President of a bank for over 15 years. Then, in 2016, she made the decision to move to Parkview in Frisco to be closer to her children. She really enjoys exercising and believes that it helps her in her overall health. She is very excited to be teaching exercise classes for our residents.

Pat Gougeheim, Resident

Parkview Book Club

Pat is excited to now be leading the Parkview Book Club. She loves to read and discuss books from a wide variety of genres, and appreciates the Book Club for the opportunity to become familiar with books and authors that are new to her.

David Gustafson, Executive Director

My Home Town, Soul to Soul

Ever since taking his first steps in Tuscaloosa, AL, Parkview's Executive Director David Gustafson has had a four-legged best friend following him around. While growing up in Lake Dallas, Texas, David had Beau to join him on forest and lake excursions. Beau was followed by several other beloved best buddies, and today David has two golden retrievers (Sandy and Felix) faithfully at his side or trying to sit in his lap. Apart from these two joyful goldens, David's family also includes his lovely wife Ulrika; together they live in Frisco.

Ulrika Gustafson, Volunteer

Bible Study/Reflections

Ulrika, a native of Sweden, lives with her husband David and their two Golden Retrievers in Frisco, Texas. An attorney by trade, Ulrika enjoys spending her days off exploring the country with her family, developing her passion for photography, or trying out new, tasty baking recipes. She also has an extensive background in city management, which led her on an adventurous career path that eventually landed her in Texas.

Carol Hamner, Resident

Opera Lover's

Carol Hamner has had three great passions in her life: Robert Hamner, books, and music. She and Robert have been married for 54 years and figure that 54 more ought to be just about enough. After almost 30 years as a librarian, books continue to draw her even here at Parkview where she volunteers in our library and is in the Book Club. Only a mediocre pianist in her younger days, she has found her greatest joy in music as a listener. Most recently she has finally had time to study a few operas and loves sharing what she is learning with friends in the Opera Group.

CLASS NAME

Walter Hunter/Resident

The Joy of Thinking

Walter Hunter is new to Parkview and is a pro in the fields of science and technology. He received his Doctorate from the University of Colorado at Boulder in Physical Sciences: Chemistry and Physics. His academic experience includes teaching, research, writing, and Academic Dean. He also served as Professor Emeritus at the University of Missouri in Columbia. He served in the U.S. Marine Corp during both WWII and the Korean War. Christi Lacey is a dedicated, active member of the St. Francis of Assisi parish here in Frisco. She has years of experience working with Parkview in Frisco, bringing communion, assisting with Mass, and providing special entertainment for various seasonal events.

Joan Lehrer, Resident

The Basics of Quilting

Joan's love for quilting began 24 years ago when she and her daughter went to get pizza and saw a quilting shop next door. Her daughter jokingly told Joan that she should make a quilt for her grand daughter and Joan was up for the challenge! She has been quilting ever since. Joan is a native of Yonkers, NY and she came to Parkview this past February and we couldn't be happier to have her here!

Rhonda Luker, Business Office Manager/HR

Friends and Family

Rhonda has worked in the senior living industry for the past 34 years. She has a passion for seniors, and loves being able to get to know and serve the residents at Parkview in Frisco. She has been married for 35 years and has two sons and three grandchildren. When Rhonda isn't at work, she loves to spend time with her family and enjoys taking the grandchildren to the park or out to swim, cooking together, and having snuggling time at night. She's also a big fan of the Dallas Cowboys!

CLASS NAME

Diane Mabeley, Business Office Assistant

War of Words

Diane is an amazing person, who has a desire to consistently grow and mature in all areas of life. She is up for taking on a tough challenge and her choice in this book is a clear example of this. She has recently transitioned from our front desk concierge into the new role of Business Office Assistant. You will be blessed by your time with her as you tackle a tough topic together.

Christianne Martineau, Community Life Associate

Crafting with Christiane, French 101

Christianne was born in Fraipont, on the border of France and Belgium, and completed her undergraduate education in French language at the University of Paris, Sorbonne. She went on to study three more years to complete her doctorate in French, in Belgium. From her youth, Christianne was interested in genealogy, having researched back into 32 generations. For the past 18 years, she also has had a passion for crafting and home decorating (which she studied for two years), and loves to share her skills. She has worked here at Parkview for over six years, first in the restaurant and now as our Community Life Assistant. Christianne is grateful every day to be able to work with the residents at Parkview and she learns something from each of them. She likes to call Parkview “home”.

Sheree McKinney, Community Life Associate

Scrapbooking

Sheree has worked here at Parkview, in our Assisted Living and Memory Care building, for almost three years. She has a wonderful husband and two grown children. Sheree really enjoys crafts and scrapbooking. Her passion for seniors is amazing and shows in everything she does.

Maribel O'Brien

Chair Yoga

Maribel was introduced to yoga after a sports injury. After her first class, she felt invigorated and was hooked. She completed her 500 hour RYT training in 2015 and has been teaching restorative yoga classes ever since. She is our Parkview massage therapist and her demeanor is a perfect combination of joy and calm.
